The Federal Regulations allow special considerations in the Section 8 Rental Assistance Program to a person or a family of a person who is handicapped or disabled requiring a live-in aide reside in their unit to provide necessary supportive services. Supportive services include, but are not limited to, assisting with dressing/undressing, bathing, shaving, grooming including assistance with continence care, moving in and out of bed, eating, meal preparation, housekeeping tasks, etc. A live-in aide requires a separate bedroom and, therefore, requires a larger size bedroom unit for the family. In order for MBHA to determine if the above named person qualifies for a live-in aide, we would appreciate your completing the certification below and returning this form to the Myrtle Beach Housing Authority, P. O. Box 2468, Myrtle Beach, SC 29578.

I certify, based on the above named person’s physical or mental disability or disorder which restricts his/her ability to perform basic activities of daily living, or which threatens his/her capacity to live independently requires an eligible person to live at their residence:
